

Quilling Guild Online Competition Rules for 'A Quilled Frame' Competition, 2020

As this is a brand new venture for The Quilling Guild, you should check the rules and guidelines on every occasion, before entering.

Can anyone enter?

The competition is open to all members of the Quilling Guild, both Full and Online, who have, or can access, an email address.

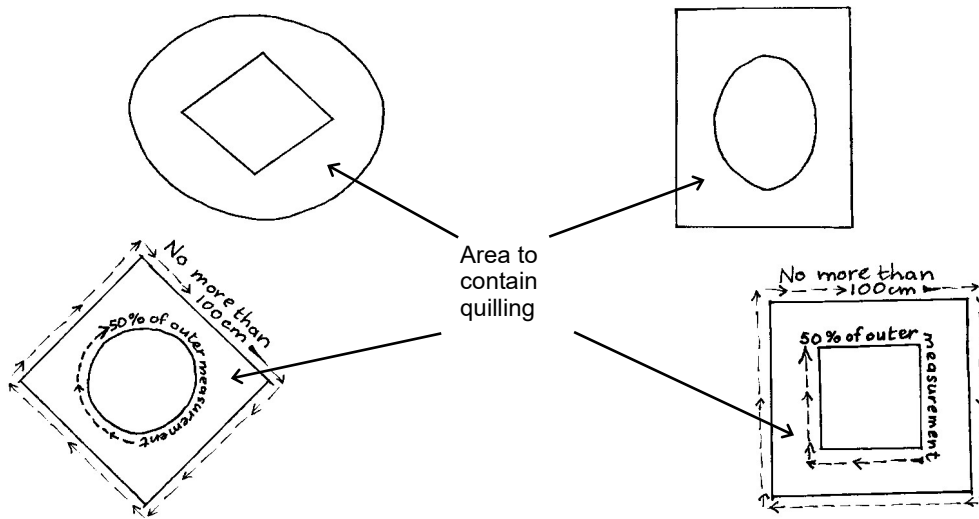

NB: You can join The Quilling Guild at <https://membermojo.co.uk/quillingguild>

Does this competition have a title?

Yes. The challenge for this competition is “A Quilled Frame”. So, rather than a quilling ‘inside a frame’, this challenge requires that the frame, itself, be quilled. The frame can be made from any sturdy material, such as board, wood or strong card, such as might be used for a picture or mirror.

Is there a size limit?

Yes. The outer perimeter/circumference must be no greater than 100cm/40”. The inner perimeter/circumference must be 50% of the outer. You should tell us when you enter the size of your finished piece.

The frame can be any shape, as shown by the examples above, so long as it conforms to measurements.

NB: There must be no glass or plastic covering the quilling.

How long do I have to complete this challenge?

Entries must have been sent in by 31st July, 2020

How do I enter?

When you have completed your work, you will need to take four photographs of it. Phone or camera images must be set to large image, maximum detail, and saved as JPG files. One must show the whole quilling, two taken from different angles and the fourth one must show you, the quiller, holding your work. The photos must be of good enough quality that the judges can closely observe your work.

NB: Regrettably, any unclear or out-of-focus images will be disqualified.

When you email your entry, please list in the email your name, the title of the competition and your frame's outer size. Your name and your personal photo will not be seen by the judges. Attach the images and Artist's Statement, if you have one, to the email.

Do I need to send anything else?

If you wish to, you may send an Artist's Statement of no more than 100 words, describing your piece. This should be on a Word, or text file which can be read in Word, or as an image or PDF. This artist's statement is purely optional.

Where should I send my images?

Please email your files to: qgonlinecomp@yahoo.com.

How do I know if I've won?

We have a rigorous judging system, involving Fellows of the Quilling Guild. The results might take up to four weeks to be announced but, out of respect for your work, we'd rather be thorough than quick.

NB: In order to preserve your anonymity, you should not post any images of your work on any social media until after results are announced.

What are the judges looking for?

1. Originality - The piece must be entirely your own work, made from your own design. You will find a copy of the Copyright Guidelines for Crafters and Hobbyists, as produced by Ginger Davies Allman of www.TheBlueBottleTree.com, on the Quilling Guild website <http://quilling-guild.weebly.com/copyright-guidelines.html>
NB: The Quilling Guild reserves the right to disqualify and remove awards if work, at any time, proves not to be original.
2. Imagination - A clever and inspired piece will gain points.
3. Expertise - Plenty of Quilling Guild accepted techniques and their variations , carefully chosen as appropriate to your design. The Quilling Guild's Terminology Sheet can be found at www.quilling-guild.co.uk.
4. Accuracy - Careful, clean work is a must.
5. Materials - Your quilling must be made entirely of paper/card strips and glue.

We very much look forward to seeing your work. Good luck!
